

The New Generation of Shirts

Probably the primary reason you and I wish to wear an interesting tshirt is for the social purpose it conveys. You would like people to love you for this, and to be amused by your tee. And if you select the proper shirt, you will get this result.

However there are always a few things you need to think about if you are wearing your funny shirt:

1) You want it to fully match your style and personality. You don't desire to be wearing a top that claims you're a mean drinker (for example) and you are as docile as a hindu cow who has never touched a drink. You intend to match your personality traits and find a shirt that expresses that in a funny way.

2) You want to have the best attitude when it comes to making use of your shirt. Remember, wearing something as extravagant as an interesting shirt means additionally you must have a certain flair that brings focus on yourself. The proper attitude means getting approached more by people in a bar or a cultural environment.

If you just use the shirt as a attention drawer and let your personality do the remainder, then you are wearing a funny tshirt in the best way. If you just expect your shirt to keep on the conversation then your joke is for you, since a funny tshirt is focused on the initial impressions, you take care of the rest.

3) Never mind the haters. If you are wearing something that's not within society's "standard limits" then you can certainly surely expect some individuals making fun of you or completely hating you, it includes the territory.

Make sure you be with the proper attitude when you are wearing your funny tshirt and just keep it cool and aloof. Have some fun using it yourself and you is going to do great.
