

Use a Local Travel Agent to Organise Tour Packages to Experience the Golden land of Myanmar

India, Bangladesh, China, and Laos are some, but today I refer to that which they surround...Myanmar.

A country which has held on to its heritage and refused to allow its traditions and physical features fade away. Formerly known as Burma, Myanmar is a country that boasts plenty of temples and pagodas, the Mandalay Palace, palm-lined beach resorts, busy markets, lakes, parks and Buddhist relics from as far back as the 6th century.

One also gets to rub shoulders with a diverse ethnic population, whilst exploring her hidden treasures. It is a perfect mix of ancient wonders, beauty and friendliness. To get the most out of a tour package in such a historically rich country such as Myanmar, one requires a local company to ensure that no stone is left unturned.

Asia International Link Travel and Tour, found at www.aalinktravelandtour.com, will certainly point you in the right direction. They are one of the leading travel agencies in Myanmar and promote sustainable tourism concepts whether ecological, cultural or to do with heritage. If you want a Myanmar Tour Package, then Asia InternationalLink is your go to travel and tour company.

They'll know which hotels are the best to pick from and the locations that would be best suited to you, so that you can be assured of seeing it all. The price of their hotels is also cheaper than options found within Myanmar's bordering countries. They are even happy to assist you, if their selection of hotels does not include one you might have heard about from a friend or other travel site and want included.

Dealing with a locally owned and operated travel agency in Myanmar, cuts down the likelihood of one's holiday being put off course. Asia International Link Travel arranges different types of tour package in Myanmar. Daily city tours, FIT tours, Incentive tours, Tailor made tours, Package tours and Cruise tours. There are also religious and pilgrimage tours. Language guide services are available too. Their internet site also gives you the option of filling in a form that will ensure every one of your needs is met.

Once you choose to use Asia International you will not regret it. Their rates are fair and competitive, their employees have been dealing with tourists visiting their homeland for ten years and they want you choose a Myanmar Tour Package that gets you to see their country in the light it should be seen in.
