

5 Things to Consider Before Buying Your Tracksuit for the Summer | basics clothing

Tracksuits - a set of two-piece clothing that defines your style during your workout schedule. But after the pandemic, tracksuits have become informal office wear too.

The tracksuits are very essential if you are a fitness buff who's dedicated towards keeping your work schedule on point, every day of every week of the year. This means, choosing the right set of the outfit is very important, if you expect them to work well on you. So, here are a few tips to keep in mind before you buy your tracksuits for this summer.

1. The Fabric - Too many options are available in the market these days. It includes both your nearby retail store and your online options. You must check what kind of fabric was made to tailor the track suit before choosing them. There are a lot of fabric options available in the market these days and choosing the right fabric that feels good on you could be quite a challenge. Some prefer a 100% cotton fabric while some prefer a cotton and a polyester blend. Whichever fabric you choose, make sure you remember your choice for future purchases or try out different options and have a good collection.

2. Brand - Almost all brands use the best of the fabrics in their clothing. But that doesn't mean all of them will provide you with the comfort you desire. You might have heard people preferring one brand over the other, and you yourself might have some favourites on your list. Brands like Adidas and Gym King have a versatile collection of gym and sportswear that they have designed and perfected over the years. 4. Purpose - What is the reason you choose to buy a tracksuit? Is it just for the summer or are you planning to use them after that too? Be clear on why you are buying a tracksuit before getting one. With tracksuits becoming a fashion statement on their own, it is tempting to get one now and then, but you can get a couple good sets of tracksuits and use them regularly instead of getting ten sets for a cheap price and watch them all sitting in your closet for a year. Whatever be the need of yours, you can't go wrong with a tracksuit. It is simple to wear, easy to wash and gives you complete comfort.

5. Weather - This point is synonymous to the fabric. The weather and climate in your location largely affects your choice of tracksuits. If you stay in a place with a warm climate around the year, you could go with a light cotton fabric to keep you cool. Or if you are in a colder region, you could choose a much denser fabric. There is also your body condition. If you are prone to sweating a lot, you need a cotton fabric to absorb the moisture and keep you cool on the other hand, you need to be moisturized all the time, and you can choose a blended fabric that keeps you comfortable.
